

Towering edifices

Established in 1986, the Mumbai-based firm Deepak Mehta Architect is well known for its range of residential and commercial projects, especially in its home city. The firm strongly believes in complete research and development while offering design solutions in an approach that is organic yet involves modern interventions. Featuring a gamut of projects designed by the firm- an IT park, office and commercial complex.

NITCO ARIHANT IT PARK, CHENNAI

